

Centaur Consulting: finding us

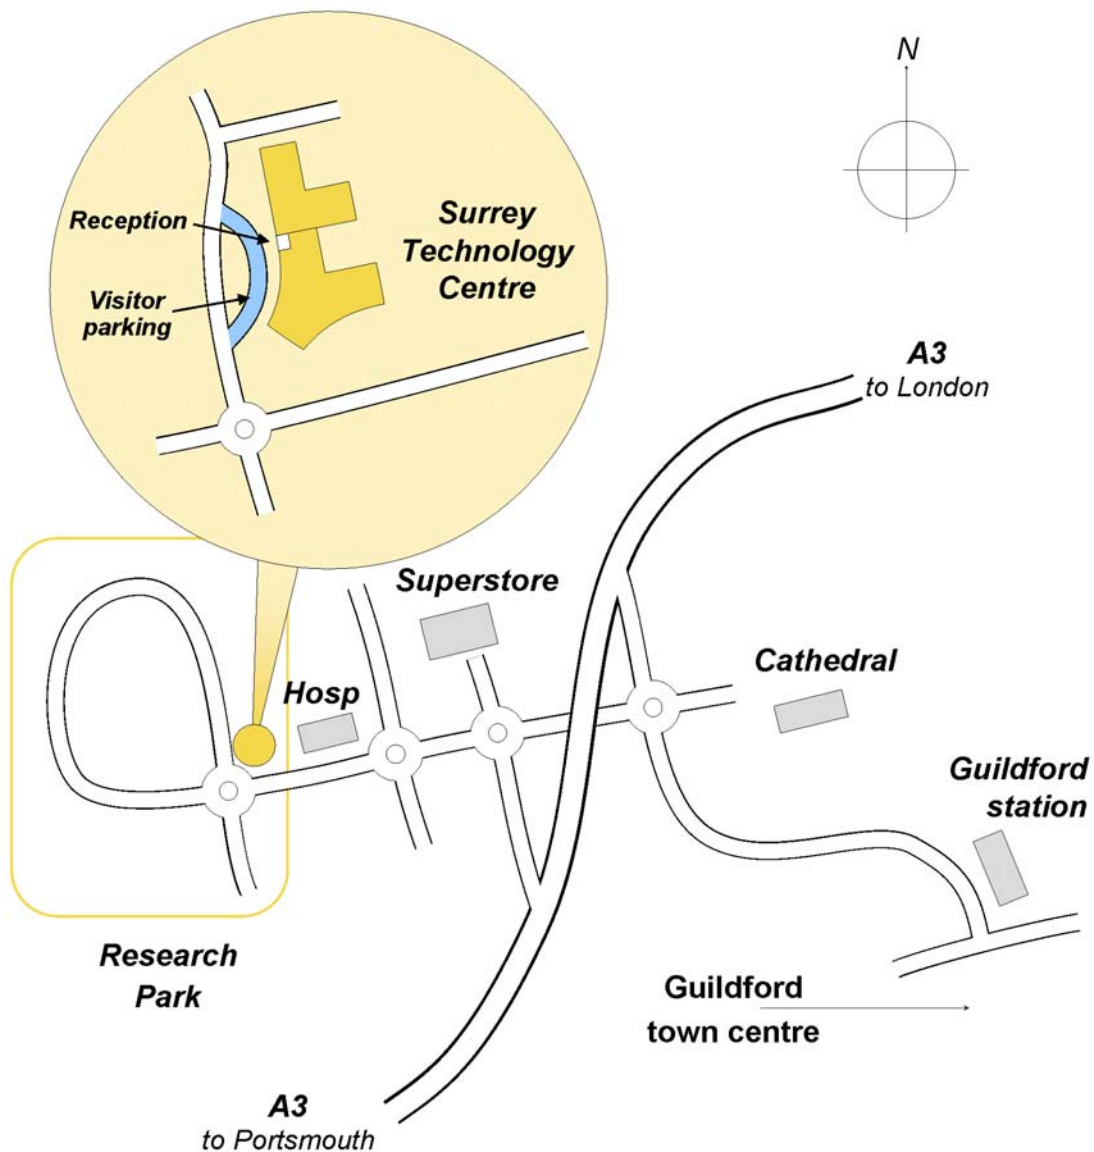

By public transport

From London Waterloo, travel to Guildford mainline station (not London Road) is on the main line to Portsmouth. During the working day fast trains leave approximately every half hour, and the journey time is around 35 minutes.

The Research Park can be reached from the railway station by walking (journey time 30 minutes), or Arriva buses (Service 27) from the Cathedral Hill exit of the Railway Station and Stand 10 at Guildford Bus Station (frequency approximately every 20 minutes) or by taxi (available at the station entrance).

By road

Leave the A3 trunk road at Guildford, taking the exit signed for University and Cathedral (not Guildford town centre). Travel west past the Tesco superstore and the hospital to the Research Park. Surrey Technology Centre is at the entrance to the Park.
